The Direct Graduate PLUS Loan, together with all other financial aid, may not total more than the student's cost of attendance. There is no limit on the maximum aggregate amount that is available to Direct Graduate PLUS Loan borrowers. PVAMU is responsible for making the final determination of a student's cost of attendance. Estimated costs for the 2008-2009 award year are provided on the OSFA web site.

Enter the enrollment period for which this loan is requested. Summer includes any sessions from May 19, 2008 through August 9, 2008.

Cost of attendance is based on credit hours taken during each term. If your student expects to be less than full time status, please indicate the total credit hours expected for each term.

U.S. Citizenship:

Place a check in the box that corresponds with your citizenship status. If appropriate, enter the Alien Registration Number.

The Direct Graduate PLUS Loan Program is intended to provide financial aid to parents who are either U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, permanent residents, or certain Pacific Islanders who intend to become citizens or permanent residents of the United States.

The term "U.S. citizen or national" includes citizens of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands. "National" includes not only all U.S. citizens, but also citizens of American Samoa and Swain's Island.

A "permanent resident" of the United States is someone who can provide documentation of this status from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

An "eligible noncitizen" is an individual who can provide documentation from the USCIS that he/she is in the United States for a purpose that is not temporary, with the intention of becoming a citizen or permanent resident. This category includes refugees, persons granted asylum, Cuban-Haitian entrants, temporary residents under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 and others.

Default/Owe Refund on Federal Aid:

If you are not in default on a federal education loan and do not owe a refund on a federal student grant.
