Request for a Student Loan Reduction/Cancellation

This form is used to request cancellation or reduction in federal and state funds awarded. Please refer to your award letter or award distribution on our website to use as a guide when completing this request. You should allow up to 7 working days for processing of your request.

Please understand, if funds have already been credited to your account and/or disbursed to you, you will need to submit a check made out to PVAMU in the amount to be cancelled, along with this form for this request to be honored. Also, please understand that canceling the first disbursement of your loan automatically cancels any remaining disbursements. To reduce an award, under the appropriate semester for which the reduction is being made and enter the total amount you are requesting. To decline an award, indicate which semester you would like to cancel and enter "0".
