Women's History Month Series

Theme: Women Who Advocate for EDI
Supporting CPS and Foster Children

Dr. Shonda Whetstone, an expert in education and child welfare, has a BS in Criminal Justice, teaching and reading degrees from Sam Houston University, along with a Master's and Ph.D. from PVAMU.

She has worked for Brazos County Juvenile Probation, Child Protective Services, Bryan ISD, Texas A&M University and is currently the Assistance Dean of Sociology at Blinn College.

Dr. Whetstone advocates for vulnerable children by tackling crucial topics like the impact of CPS and foster care experiences on educational outcomes, offering insights to reduce dropout rates and promote college attendance for foster children and abused or neglected youth.
