

PVAMU, TAMU AWARDED $12M TO RECRUIT, PREPARE, DEVELOP AND SUPPORT A STRONG AND DIVERSE EDUCATOR WORKFORCE

The grant from the U.S. Department of Education will help support P-12 teachers and school leaders across the nation.

PRAIRIE VIEW, Texas (Oct. 21, 2022) – A new $12.2 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education will soon help support P-12 teachers and school leaders across the U.S.

Led by Prairie View A&M University's Whitlowe R. Green College of Education, in partnership with Texas A&M University, the five-year Teacher Quality Partnership grant will "help recruit, prepare, develop and retain a strong, effective and diverse teacher workforce," according to a DOE release.

"The College has always been a noted leader in the state of Texas in producing teachers and leaders for high-need districts," said WRGCOE Dean Michael McFrazier. "We have a rooted legacy of producing some of the nation's most distinguished educators. Our unique programs prepare graduates to support the educational development and well-being of culturally diverse children and youth."

PVAMU and TAMU are members of The Texas A&M University System. Click here to learn more about the new grant.
